BOUNTY ON WHEAT AND CORN.

BLANK Certificates for receiving the State Bounty on Wheat and Corn, printed and for sale by SMITH & FENNO.

STATE OF MAINE.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled.

RESPECTFULLY represent the undersigned, your petitioners, that the public interest would be much promoted by the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot river at Great-works Falls (so called) where there are large and increasing milling establishments and villages on each side of the river. And they further represent that the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot river at that place would greatly convenience the inhabitants at the villages of Upper and Lower Stillwater, and the travelling public generally, who have occasion to travel up and down the Penobscot river, by the State and Military roads, and that the prospect of an ultimately free communication through the great thoroughfare from Bangor to Houlton is of the highest importance to the interests of the community and the State, and that the erection of a free bridge over the Penobscot river on that route, during the present impoverished and distressed condition of the country, is utterly hopeless.

Wherefore your petitioners respectfully petition for an Act of Incorporation to erect a bridge over the Penobscot river, at said Great-works Falls, between Orono and Bradley, with the right to take toll, at such rates as you in your wisdom may deem reasonable until the tolls received shall amount to the first cost of the bridge, interest on the same, and expenses of repair, after which the bridge shall become a free bridge, with such further provisions as may be deemed suitable and necessary. As in duty bound will ever pray.

NATH'L TREAT, and 57 others.

STATE OF MAINE.

In House of Representatives, March 5, 1838.

On the Petition aforesaid, Ordered, That the Petitioners cause an attested copy of their Petition, with this order thereon, to be published in the Eastern Argus, a paper published at Portland, and the Whig and Courier, a paper published at Bangor, thirty days at least before the first Wednesday of the next Legislature, that all persons interested [illegible] then appear and shew cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted.

Read and accepted.

Sent up for concurrence.

F. H. ALLEN, [illegible]

BANGOR WHIG.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 31, 1838.

REMOVAL.

☞ The Office of the WHIG and COURIER has been removed to the Rooms over the Store of Messrs. Smith & Fenno, a few doors below the former stand. Entrance No, 13, West Market Place.

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE

We have reason to believe that there is more attention paid to the science of Agriculture at the present day, than at any former period since the settlement of America. People have learned wisdom from the past, and are beginning to feel the importance of tilling the soil; and as new inventions have rendered labor less irksome, men, unaccustomed in early life to the toils of the field, embrace farming with far less reluctance.

We do not profess to be very wise in such matters, but it has always seemed to us that a majority of those who make farming a business, have not taken sufficient interest in the improvements which are constantly making in agricultural science in other portions of the country. We are aware that many of our leading agriculturalists, have latterly paid rather more attention to the subject than formerly, yet, after all, the great mass remain satisfied to pursue the old track, and trust luck. He, however, is not a farmer in the proper sense of the term, nor deserving the name, who plods on, and month after month, and year after year, treads in the footsteps of his predecessors, regardless of the progress of things in other portions of the country.

We do not mean by this that the farmer is justified in adopting as an "improvement" every slight modification of the old "rule of practice," which is thrust before the community under that name; on the contrary there is great danger of being led into schemes "wild and visionary," promising no good to any body. In those regions of our country in which the agriculturalist has had years to prepare his grounds, and where, by the aid of artificial means, he has succeeded in converting an indifferent patch into a rich garden mold, something like a mathematical calculation may be made as to the number of bushels a given number of acres shall produce. But it is far otherwise with him who goes into the wilderness, as it were, and occupies a spot over which the practical cultivator never held dominion.

There is much truth in the old maxim, that

"He who by the plough would thrive, Himself must either hold or drive;"

for it is morally impossible that a knowledge of any business can be acquired without labor. Experience is the best teacher; and the practical farmer, therefore, is not likely to be led astray by any new method of conducting the business of a farm, which is not an improvement. "Book farming," as it has been termed, enables the agriculturalist to avail himself of the experience of others; but unless it carry him beyond the mere point of "scientific analysis," it cannot be said, in all cases to promote the object sought. The farmer requires whole fields for his labratory, and must make use of the plough and the harrow, as well as the crucible and alembic, in coming at conclusions.

This may not strike others as "the true doctrine"; yet, in our opinion, it cannot be gainsayed. We shall take occasion to refer to this subject again.

☞ What will the Argus, the Age, the Democrat, and the other Loco Foco papers in this State, who are in favor of dissolving all connection between the Banks and the Government and who have repeatedly declared that specie was more convenient than bills, say to the following Circular of the Pay-Master General? We hope the Democrat will publish this Circular for the benefit of its readers, whom it has so often endeavored to gull with the idea of a specie currency.

Copy it, we say, Mr. Democrat; and let your readers see the high opinion your masters at Washington entertain of the bills of the "Monster."

[CIRCULAR.]

"Paymaster General's Office,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 8th, 1838.

SIR: Arrangements having been made with the UNITED STATES BANK to pay the Treasurer's drafts to a certain amount at different places, and it being probable the notes of that Bank will be as acceptable to claimants, and in some cases MORE CONVENIENT THAN SPECIE, you will, should you receive drafts on that Bank or its agents, make as many of your payments by check as you can, which will give the receiver the option of taking paper or specie; and the Department has no objection to your using the PAPER of that Bank in ALL your payments, so far as it can be done legally.

Respectfully your ob't serv't,
N. TOWSON, P. M. G."

The New York Courier and Enquirer makes the following comments on this Circular:

"Here is a precious confession indeed. Here is a direct, palpable admission that all they have said and written against Bank bills in general, and the bills of the United States Bank in particular, was but a tissue of lies, from beginning to end, and only intended to deceive and mislead the people. Here is evidence from the Administration itself, that Bank Bills are quite "as acceptable," and in many cases far more convenient than specie."

"And yet with this knowledge of the value of Bank Bills, and this admission of their superior value and convenience to Specie, we are daily [illegible] currency, that all connection between the State Banks and the Government [illegible] of the Government and the convenience of the people. Under this plan, our sound and equal currency [illegible] country, as the [illegible] and in [illegible] for a [illegible]!"

MASSACHUSETTS.—The annual election for the choice of Governor, Members of Congress, and to the Legislature, takes place in this State on the 2d Monday in November. The following are the the names of the Whig Congressional candidates:

RICHARD FLETCHER, of Boston.
LEVERETT SALTONSTALL, of Salem.
CALEB CUSHING, of Newburyport.
NATHAN BROOKS, of Concord.
LEVI LINCOLN, of Worcester.
JAMES C. ALVORD, of Greenfield.
GEO. N. BRIGGS, of Lanesboro'.
WM B. CALHOUN, of Springfield.
WM. S. HASTINGS, of Mendon.
N. B BORDEN, of Fall River.
JOHN REED, of Yarmouth.
JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, of Quincy.

NEW YORK. The election in this State takes place on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. New York, like Pennsylvania, has always been an administration State, and when we look at the strenuous efforts made, and the fraudulent means resorted to by the locos in other States to retain their ascendancy, the chances are against us, of rescuing the Empire State from the hands of the Spoilers this year.

☞ The Augusta Age says that "Georgia is the only State where the election was put on the great issue of a National Bank or Independent Treasury." This is not true. The election was put distinctly on this "great question;" more distinctly in fact than in any other State, for even the Whig ticket was headed with this significant motto: "Anti-Van Buren Sub-Treasury, or no Sub Treasury Anti-Van Buren Bank or no Bank."

The Madisonian states that the hall of the Patent office at Washington will be the largest single room in the world; the ceiling to be supported by one or two hundred pillars. The portico it is believed, will cost $170,000.

☞ The folks down west may expect "cold, easterly winds," for it snows up here, and the ground is much frozen.

By the adoption of the new Constitution of Pennsylvania, Gov. Ritner's term of office has been extended to the middle of January.

A letter from a member of the Legislature of Illinois to the New York Journal of Commerce, dated Oct. 10th, says, "We meet next week There is a majority of Whigs in each House."

The Globe is in great agony about Pennsylvania, and well it may be. The loss of both Houses of the Legislature and the election of a Whig Senator to Congress was what it never anticipated. It would give a dozen Tory Governors to obtain what the Whigs have secured in the Key Stone State.

The votes of Ohio have increased 40,000 in two years.

Mississippi--Hon A. L. Bingaman is the Whig candidate for the U. S Senate from Mississippi. James Trotter V. B. is the present incumbent and his term expires in Much.

An order passed authorizing the Street Commissioner, with instructions, to lay out a Square on Wall Street, and make assessments on adjoining lots, provided the City will not be obliged to pay more than $4000. Sent up for concurrence. Adj. for two weeks.

The Bangor Counterfeit Democrat says "A majority of all the offices in the whole country are occupied by federalists." This may be so, but they are loco focos. When Jackson was elected he found the men in office who had been appointed by Jefferson, Madison and Monroe. (J. Q. Adams made but very few appointments.) These men were turned out, and Jackson men appointed. They are the men now in office, and a great part of them are old federalists, some of them the very men removed by Jefferson.

[Kennebec Journal.

Exercise. Why are not our ladies walking or riding these fine bracing, autumnal mornings? The fresh breeze of our mountains would bring the rose to their cheeks, and vigor to constitutions enfeebled by the excessive heat of the past summer. Ladies are too apt to confine themselves at home, and as much as we admire them in their domestic spheres, we love to see them bounding under the excitement of exercise, and drinking in the melody of nature, "music whose melody is of the heart." What can be more buoyant and refreshing? What better suited to fit us for the duties of the day, its toils, cares and perplexities, than a morning ramble? And then too, the coffee and toast relished [illegible] of breakfast [illegible] your [illegible] exercise freely, and you'll [illegible] "against the [illegible]." [illegible]

NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY

We find the following communication, dated Woodstock, Oct. 20, in the St John Chronicle, of the 26th inst.

"Our village, of late, has been all excitement respecting the American Commissioners and Surveyors who are now in full work; many of our settlers who live in the neighborhood of the Aroostook, have been much alarmed from the prevailing reports of the Americans, who do not hesitate to state, that the greater portion of the Lands now occupied by British subjects, are part and parcel of the State of Maine; and that as such, they must and will be enrolled as subjects of that State. It is also very currently reported and as generally believed, that the same body of gentlemen who form the Commissioners and Surveyors, (in number twelve) are also deputized to distribute a portion of the Surplus Revenue to the different settlements in those remote districts. Some two or three Magistrates who were zealously inclined to watch over and protect the interests and rights of our most gracious Queen, were proceeding with their neighbors to prevent intrusion on the British Territory; but were soon checked in their progress, by an American gentleman producing authority from the Lieutenant Governor of the Province to proceed on their mission of Survey. The Fredericton Royal Gazette, which contains permission for them to proceed, is now held up as their mandate, and sets at defiance all interference of Magistrates or others; thus neutralizing the powers, that were heretofore so zealous in maintaining the interests of the British Crown. That permission should have been given to the American Commissioners to proceed without being accompanied by some British Magistrates or other competent authorities, is a matter to be deeply regretted, and will prove a source of much future trouble: That the State of Maine will be led to acknowledge, that any part of her claims to our territory is unjust; is an idea too absurd for an Englishman to credit; but that she will be more extravagant in her demands on her own general government, immediately after the Commissioners shall have made their report, is as certain, and as well known, as that the Commissioners are now surveying the territory in dispute.

MEN AND THINGS IN WASHINGTON A letter from Washington, published in the New York Times, contains the following synopsis;

"We have nothing new here but the elections, and by them every body is excited.

"Van Buren is in fine health, and apparently good spirits. His three sons are flying about, like butterflies of the palace. Maj. Van Buren is about to be married to a rich and homely Miss Singleton of South Carolina 'Tis said that Martin, Jr. is courting Miss Blair. Forsyth has gone to Georgia. Too late. Georgia is lost to him. Kendall has gone to Illinois, to examine the mail routes, via the Hermitage. He looks pale, haggard, and wretched. He is indefatigable. I believe Woodbury is preparing his classical reports to Congress. 'Tis said he wrote over his former reports often enough too have filled a book like Josephus. Mr. Poinsett and Mr. Grundy are attending to their duties. The walls of the Treasury building are nearly finished, and the splendid Patent office is raising fast. The Hall of the House of Representatives has been revolutionized and improved. The Speaker's chair has been transferred to the opposite side of the house, and the members' seats reversed."

For the Whig & Courier.

MR. EDITOR The article in the Whig of the 26th inst. under the head of Economy, &c. was well timed, and deserves the consideration of every one, not only in these times, but also when we are blessed with more means to be extravagant.

The writer appears to speak feelingly on the subject; and perhaps himself, and many others, have cause to lament the curse of those times which not only run away with their means, but also with much of their senses. We should all take a view of our expenditures, and take warning from the extravagance of the past; and resolve not only to study but to practice economy, in the days of prosperity, and then we should be better prepared to live on moderate means in less prosperous times. Let us see if our houses are not larger than is needful; thus subjecting us to the expense of an unnecessary amount of furniture. Let us see if we do not provide too large a quantiy, and too often, of outward garments, while we have those on hand which are sufficiently good to make a decent appearance in. Social intercourse, and friendly entertainment and interchanges with our neighbors are proper, yet these may be carried to an unnecessary extent. But have we not given too many expensive parties, and attended those given by others; to do which, additional and extravagant dress is thought necessary, and procured, at an expense much beyond what we ought to subject ourselves which it often happens many owe their tailors and milliners, though nothing to their credit. Let us see if we cannot abridge the number of our help, and thus save a deal of expense, which is here increased, and attend more to our domestic duties, and less to street walking, and in making calls at unseasonable hours and keep in memory the saying of Poor Richard, that "a fat kitchen makes a lean parlor."

By abridging much unnecessary expense in our living, we shall not "cheat our honest creditors," who have trusted us with their goods, on the score of our ability to pay for them. There are many ways to save the expenditure of money without losing the good opinion of those whom we strive to imitate in order to be thought much of, but who in fact care little or nothing about us, farther than to live upon our means, giving others occasion to censure us as we pass through the world, for our extravagance and want of economy.

The writer on Economy hopes there are not many who are so silly or so weak as to think that the acquisition of any expensive articles will add to their benefit or their happiness. If this is not the case, why do so many of our young [illegible] not afford it [illegible] many young families obtain such expensive furniture, clothes, [illegible], and many other articles quite unnecessary, except to gratify a habit of [illegible] of the [illegible] should be husbanded for later years, when perhaps, any of us will need aid from others, we should look around, and see how many "honest creditors" we are cheating. Does it add much to our credit, to make so much show in the world, when there are so many outstanding bills against us for the articles which are the true cause of making us appear so well in the world? By no means. And we should study the short but sensible homily, "owe no man anything," and then we should be enabled to live as we please, without subjecting ourselves to censure.

The study and habits of economy are commendable in every one, and were it more appreciated, people would not be obliged to "cover up" their houses, their furniture and other property from the notice of their more "honest creditors." They would also be enabled to appreciate others who do not strive to make such a dash in the world, and who do not live beyond their income, in order to be highly esteemed, without meriting such esteem. JUNIUS.

Queen of England.--The editor of the N. Y. Herald thus speaks of the British Queen:

"The nearest view I had of England's Queen was in St George's Chapel, at Windsor. It was on a bright Sunday morning very bright and very unusual for England. I stood in one of the long gothic corridors, leading into the Royal closet. A carpet was placed the whole length, and on each side a number of ladies and gentlemen took up their position to have a view also of the lovely young Queen. In a few minutes, the royal carriage drove up to the Gothic entrance the Queen dismounted, and preceded by two footmen, she tripped her way through the corridor or aisle, bowing and smiling to the company on each side of her, as she passed. She was followed by her suite, walking in Indian file, one by one. This was one of the best views I had of the Queen, for I happened to be standing on the very edge of the narrow carpet as she passed, and could not be more than three feet from her. She was dressed in a silk gown, with flowers but no narrow sleeves. Over her shoulders she wrapped a plain shawl. She wore a simple white bonnet, with red and white roses, her veil flung back. As she tripped down a few marble steps that led to the main avenue, I had a very fine view of her beautiful little feet and neatly turned ancle.

"She looked for all the world like a pretty little Knickerbocker girl, neatly, cleanly, but most simply dressed, tripping down Broadway, on her way to the Dutch Presbyterian Church in Nassau street. She is small; but her figure is beautifully proportioned; her air most amiable, but firm and prononcee. Her bust is most exquisite her smile quite amiable her cheeks very fair exceedingly so her mouth small and delicate her lips rosy, like a May morning her face slightly oval and the color of her hair yes, the color of her hair it is impossible to give it a name but I should say it was something between auburn and chesnut, perhaps a light chesnut.

With seamen it is their misfortune, when voyaging, if indisposed, to drench themselves, intolerably with drastic purges. It matters not what their symptoms indicate; salts, jalap, and calomel, in most formidable doses, and if alarmed, unnecessarily repeated, is too much the practice in every grade of seafaring life. No discrimination is made between one class of pains and other. This propensity for taking medicine on shipboard is so universal, that it is indeed strange that some one has not made the attempt to enlighten these hardy people of the ocean, by writing expressly for their understandings upon the topic. Medicine chests are furnished, to be sure, with some ninepenny treatise on the practice of physic, which refers to the numbers on the vials, but makes no satisfactory explanation of the action of the drug so designated Medicine being considered, therefore, a remedy for human disease, the sailor practises upon the precept that the more he takes, the sooner he shall recover. Passengers are easily influenced by these customs; and when any sudden alarm is created by the development of a case of sickness, supposed to have any relationship whatever to a disease from which they fancy they are fleeing as an epidemic, for example, such as that now so destructively rife at Charlestown, they too instantly begin to break down their health in a vigorous effort to ward off a threatening evil. If the matter were carefully investigated, we apprehend that it could be satisfactorily shown that a multitude of ship passengers have in this way been seriously injured, if not absolutely broken down in constitution, without the least cause for it, with the single exception of a distempered imagination induced by fear and the propensity of seamen to take physic. Our own experience in the course of years, both with sailors and those who voyage with them, convinces us that many lives are sacrificed to this salt water vice. Boston Med. and Surg. Journal.

A clergyman, of rigid faith, once undertook to convert a negro, who was all but incorrigible. As an argumentum ad hominem, he told Cuffy that the wicked did not live out half their days. "Dat dare is queer," said Cuffy "him no live out half him day, hah. Well, den I'spose him die 'bout 'leven 'clock fore-noon."

FAMILY VISITOR.

Devoted to Education, Productive Industry, Intelligence, Morals and Christianity.

CYRIL PEARL, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

THE subscriber proposes to publish a paper designed to promote the objects suggested by the above title and caption. Having been kindly received as a stranger or a guest in thousands of families, in the State, he now desires to renew acquaintance, and revive pleasant recollections, and to extend the bounds of social intercourse by Periodical visitation. He craves the privilege of a social fireside reception for the purpose of free conference on subjects like the following:

1. EDUCATION. Its design. Objects. Improvement. Defects and Remedies. We will converse upon the Physical, Intellectual and Moral bearings of this subject, and speak freely of the three strong holds of influence upon it, The Family Circle, the School Room, and the Sanctuary.

2. PRODUCTIVE INDUSTRY. We will talk of its benefits, its necessity, its advantages, and contrive "ways and means," for its advancement, and honorable standing; and endeavor to render it more attractive, and more productive; in the family, the shop and on the farm, on ship-board and on shore.

3. INTELLIGENCE. And on all subjects we can think of which are worthy of attention. We will seek for it in books, in newspapers, and the busy scenes and social intercourse of life. The sciences and the arts as connected with the common business of life, are full of intelligence; and we must contrive to make them speak out their hidden mysteries, for our mutual benefit, and we will look into the Bible, and see if this does not utter a voice so much in harmony with the revelations of science, as to indicate its origin in the same deep Fountain of Intelligence, where "are hid all the treasures of Wisdom and Knowledge."

4. MORALS AND CHRISTIANITY. These are named together for the plain reason that they ought never to be separated. Neither can well stand alone; but united they not only stand firm as the "everlasting hills," but become a solid foundation on which we may build a noble superstructure that will stand the test of time, and shine in strength and beauty forever; and echo to the sweet music of the "Harps of eternity." We shall need to say say much upon this subject, for it is connected with every thing else. Intelligence, Industry, Education, every thing desirable, dwindles or is robbed of essential attributes, motives and safeguards, when severed from Christian Morality. We will be at liberty to discuss freely all subjects which have a bearing upon this fundamental topic. Whatever deserves attention in the family circle; deserves the notice of a Visitor, whose object is to benefit those who welcome his visits. We will then give no pledges as to what subjects may, or may not, be discussed in our interviews, but if we differ in opinion on any subject, we will endeavor to keep good natured, and not call each other hard names; but rather "seek for peace" and improvement, in the language of love.

While all the interests of society, and all members of the human family will be borne in mind; we shall of necessity, have special regard for three classes, Parents, Children, and Teachers. We shall greet these with peculiar interest, and shall labor to make our visits profitable to all.

While other countries, and distant parts of our own will not be forgotten, we shall wish to converse, with great freedom, of the resources, the institutions, the interests, the responsibilities, and prospects of our own State.

TERMS.

The Family Visitor will be published at Bangor, on a Royal Sheet, once in two weeks, provided a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to warrant the undertaking. One Dollar a year in advance $1 25 in three months or $1,50 after six months. These terms must be strictly regarded.

Letters and communications must be Post Paid, and directed to the subscriber, care of E. F. Duren, Bookseller, near the Post Office, Bangor, who is duly authorized to receive subscriptions and payments for the papers.

The co-operation of SCHOOL TEACHERS is especially solicited in this enterprise. EDITORS desirous of promoting the interests of Common Schools and General Education, are respectfully invited to notice or copy this Prospectus; and all persons to whom it may be sent are desired to make its objects known, and afford such aid as they can in furnishing a list of subscribers, who will pay in advance for the paper. It is desirable that the paper should commence the first of January, but this must depend upon subscribers, and a large number will be needed to sustain it.

The friends of Education in Maine may soon decide the question whether such a paper shall be published.

DR. BRANDRETH'S GENUINE PILLS

Doctor Sangrado's system still Lives in the world, to kill, to kill!

THIS system does indeed live still, and is practised by the very men who laugh at Dr. Sangrado as a Visionary fool. The immaculate Faculty!!! Let this truth be impressed upon every mind that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid, stagnant and corrupt humors IN THE BODY by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take

Brandreth's Pills concocted forth
From the pure products of the earth;
They own no after sad alloy,
They often save, but ne'er destroy!!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER,

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood." Leviticus, chapter xvii, v. 11.—When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated, bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases, for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body, by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could possibly have done, and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation; whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also. How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary, what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine; the body is indeed lightened of a load. Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which 84 years have proved never to do injury, but always good. Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down. Is it too low? the same means will increase it to a proper standard. Is it tremulous, showing nervous excitement? the Pills, by soothing the system will allay it.

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr. B. who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year; and whose constitutions, in consequence, were becoming weaker and weaker, but who, since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood. When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened, they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation. Those sensible people simply by the use of these invaluable Pills, are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind, which, by the practice of bleeding, were both becoming dreadfully impaired.

The following cases of cure, by the use of Brandreth's Pills, alone, are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston public:

ASTHMA CURED. The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich, Ct., deserves, by all persons, a careful perusal. The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine.

This is to certify that Thomas S. Brown of Greenwich, Ct., was taken with a cold, numb feeling on the 15th of June last. He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty-four hours about two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated. Three physicians in Stamford, Greenwich, and Sawpits, pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma, and after prescribing for some time to no effect, the three consulted together, and finally declared that they could do him no good; it would end most result in consumption, and death would ensue, and that in a very short time. The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation. He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and finally gave himself up to death. After being in this miserable state nearly two months, he saw an advertisement of Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and immediately sent by Capt. J. Waring of Greenwich, for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days, which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction, is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge, in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable.

Signed. Greenwich, 22d Feb. 1836,

James R. Mead, Daniel S. Betts, John H. Reynold A Palmer, Rev. R. Palmer, J. R. Palmer, H. Brewsley, S. Jessup, James Moore, Hannah Hitchcock, J Mean, Thos Bertram, Isaac Olmstead, P. V. T. Jessup, Stephen Waring, John Limbry.

Certificate of John Goulden, who has known the above pills forty years:

I hereby certify, that I have known Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill for upwards of forty years they were used by my family connections, in the county of Dorset, England, since the year 1796, many of whom they cured of old standing complaints. JOSEPH GOULDEN.

Bridgeport, Feb. 18, 1836.

Certificate of cure of CHOLICS, FITS, &c. &c From a BOSTONIAN, whose address is at the foot [TRUE COPY.]

To Dr. Benj. Brandreth:

My dear Sir. I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT. I was subject to a great coldness through my whole system, attended with frequent pain and severe cholics; for the year, I have also been subject to fits which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child. I am ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence, No. 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire.

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I labored have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain,
Very respectfully,
JOHN LUMMUS,
Boston, 17 Sudbury street.

GENUINE BUFFALO OIL,

THE HAIR! THE HAIR! THE HAIR!

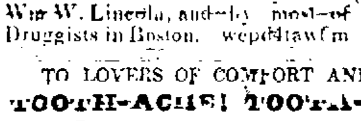
THE greatest ornament to the human body is a splendid head of hair. It has recently been discovered that the genuine Buffalo's Oil is a sovereign remedy for baldness, prevents the hair from coming off, promotes the growth, continues the luxuriance, and improves the beauty. It is far superior to any other animal or vegetable oil and in case of fever, where the hair becomes dry and begins to fall off, there is no application more effectual in restoring its beauty and retaining it in a healthy state.

It is put up at a low price, (37 1-2 cents) that all classes can have access to it. None genuine unless put up in flat bottles, with HAIR OIL impressed in the glass. Also to prevent imposition, it will be signed by the Proprietor, Wm. Brown, 481 Washington, corner of Ellot Street, Boston.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier & Guild. In Portland by J. Durgin & Co. and Wm W. Lincoln, and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wep4taw6m oct 24 1838

TO LOVERS OF COMFORT AND EASE.

TOOTH-ACHE! TOOTH-ACHE!!

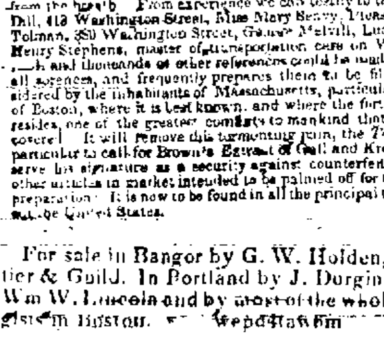


Why will you suffer with the TOOTH-ACHE, when there is a perfect remedy!

BROWN'S EXTRACT OF GALL AND KREOSOTE will cure the Tooth-ache; also remove all unpleasant smell from the breath. From experience we can testify to this fact. J. A. Dill, 412 Washington Street, Miss Mary Beavy, Pleasant Street, N. Tolman, 350 Washington Street, Gamaer Melvill, Lucas Place, Fitz Henry Stephens, master of transportation cars on Worcester railroad and thousands of other references could be made. It removes all soreness, and frequently prepares them to be filled. It is considered by the inhabitants of Massachusetts, particularly in the city of Boston, where it is best known, and where the fortunate inventor resides, one of the greatest comforts to mankind that was ever discovered. It will remove this tormenting pain, the Tooth-ache. Be particular to call for Brown's Extract of Gall and Kreosote, and observe his signature as a security against counterfeits, as there are other articles in market intended to be palmed off for this invaluable preparation. It is now to be found in all the principal towns throughout the United States.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier & Guild. In Portland by J. Durgin & Co. and Wm W. Lincoln and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wep4taw6m oct 24 1838

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS



THE best medicine for Coughs, Colds, and all Lung complaints, Hooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Side, Liver Complaint, and affections of the breast, is Mrs. M. N. GARDNER'S INDIAN BALSAM OF LIVERWORT, containing the strength of many roots and herbs. Among the number are Liverwort, Elecampane, Boneset, Asclepias tuberosa, Iceland Moss, Squills, Hyssop, Ruta graveolens; also many other herbs not to be procured in this part of the globe. For the last ten years this valuable Balsam has been in extensive use in most of the principal towns in the Northern States, and, by the persuasion of those that have tested its efficacy, the Proprietor has made arrangements to furnish the druggist of this place that all may avail themselves of this remedy, before the disease gets so seated that no medicine will remove it. Its effect on obstinate coughs is truly wonderful, and the following individuals voluntarily give their names as among the number who have proved its efficacy. "From the knowledge of the materials, and the favorable effect upon our patients, where we have prescribed the above Balsam, we recommend it to be a valuable medicine for which [illegible] Calvin Ellis, M. Webster, Boston, Horace Gall, Bristol, Me. Thos Haskins jr., Boston, Elish Horton, Jr. of Baker & Horton, Boston, David Woodbury, clerk of Joseph Steadman, Miss L. Howard. Thousands of others could be named, where it is best known. As a security against counterfeits, each direction will be signed by the Proprietor, M. N. Gardner. Proprietor's residence 481 Washington Street, Boston, where all orders can be addressed. Also observe on the bottle, impressed in the glass, the name Mrs. M. N. Gardner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort.
